Immediate Election Office Note 14

Appeal petition of Mr M Rangaswamegar of Nagadi Town regarding ^{the inclusion of} his ~~name~~ ^{name} in the Mupl Voters list for I Stn etc

Submitted

This may be taken as an appeal under Rule 8(s) of the Town Mupl Election Rules. The applicant, is a ~~not~~ resident in the II Stn and as such his name has been entered in the Voters list of that Division. On his application to the Mupl Council for transferring his name to the Voters list of I Stn, the President has issued an order stating that this is not possible under the Rules.
He has now appealed against this order.
The decision of the Mupl Council is correct as per Rule 7 of the Election Rules. If he possessed the qualification of voter in both the Divisions, then he would have the option of having his name entered in any of the Stn, as per proviso (b) of the Rule 7.
But here ~~the applicant~~ ^{he} possesses the qualification in only ~~one~~ ^{one} Stn i.e. II Division. Hence his name be entered in the Voters list of I Stn. Also a per Rule 7(c) of the Election Rules, he can vote in the II Stn and not for the I Division.

~~for election~~ As regards the right of the party to stand in any Division, it is already conceded in Rule 11(2) of the Election Rules. Hence there is no difficulty for this.

II As regards the request of the applicant regarding the inclusion of the names of his daughters in the Voters list on the ground that they have passed the A.S. Examination, the President has rightly rejected the request ~~as it applies~~ ^{as the} the qualification of voters for R.A. & C. are quite different ~~from~~ from that of the Mupl Elections. One should be a graduate to be a voter in Town Mupl Elections. One ~~must~~ educational qualification alone of approved, are
